

Mads Tolling & Colin Hogan
Cool Yule show on Dec 15 at 5:30pm
Rec Center in Bahia neighborhood in Novato hosted by Mark Silowitz

We are thrilled to announce that our Bahia neighborhood will be hosting the terrific, Grammy winning Bay Area Violinist Mads Tolling for a special Holiday performance in our Rec Center at 3008 Topaz Dr, Novato on Sunday, Dec 15 at 5:30 PM. Many have seen Mads do his solo performances at the end of Circe Ct, and many of you attended last December's Holiday show at the Clubhouse. If so, you know what a special performer Mads is. He has created a terrific show he calls Cool Yule, which will feature interpretations of classic Holiday songs and those from Mads's native Denmark. Like last year's show, his quartet's keyboard player, Colin Hogan, will be joining him. As is our tradition, we never charge admission to these shows, but rather ask for donations to cover travel times and expenses for a professional working musician. $20 is suggested, but just offer what you can afford. We promise that this will be a memorable musical evening, and it will be special to share it with our families and friends. We are hoping for a great turnout, we will have a table set up for snacks and beverages that we can all bring to share before the show. Try to be at the Rec Center by 5:00 and prepare to have a fabulous time! For more info, contact Mark Silowitz at 408-394-8535, or Email mark at marksil00@gmail.com. This should be a highlight of this Holiday season!
